

Tasting Wines

May 2018

Wine 1: Champagne CD de Norston Brut

A champagne seemingly made by Champagne Didier Chopin sold in Carrefour. Made with the traditional blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes this is a versatile wine for any fun occasion.

Where to buy: own sample

Wine 4: Arnaud Aucoeur VV Saint Amour

Saint Amour is one of the small villages of Beaujolais and is noted for their fragrant, lighter styled reds that have complexity and interest. Arnaud Aucoeur is a small producer making good Beaujolais.

Where to buy: own sample

Wine 2: Jordi Miro Garnacha Blanca 2017

The Terra Alta DO of Catalonia (Spain) produces some elegant wines due to its higher altitude. Jordi Miro is a small producer and this is a blend of White Grenache and the native Macabeo (used for making Cava). Fresh, aromatic and a good substitute for Savvy Blanc.

Where to buy: M&S £9

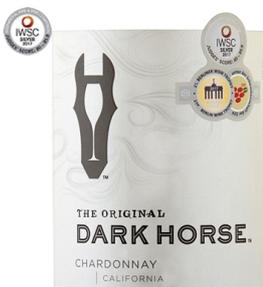

Wine 5: Hither & Yon Cabernet 2011

McLaren Vale makes bold juicy Cabernet wines with loads of liquorice and herbs amongst the black currant fruit. It is a medium bodied wine by Australian standards and has had some time in seasoned oak to round it out. 2011 was a cooler vintage drinking well now.

Where to buy: own sample cellar stock

Wine 3: Dark Horse Chardonnay 2016

A Californian oaked Chardonnay that has lots of lovers and some nice awards for a wine of its price point. Dark Horse is one of the very large wine company E&J Gallo's brands.

Where to buy: Sainsburys, Tesco, Waitrose, Iceland £7.99+

Wine 6: Brown Bros Orange Muscat & Flora 2016

Brown Brothers are an Australian favourite wine family and this is a unique dessert wine. Orange Muscat is a rare grape originally from France or Italy. Flora is a cross between Semillon and Gewurztraminer from USA created in 1938.

Where to buy: Waitrose £7.75 (half)
